says—

"The EASTERN STATES EXPOSITION is the outstanding livestock show of the East. So, too, is the NEW ENGLAND HOMESTEAD the foremost Agricultural publication of New England, a real farmers paper—sound sane and reliable. Your advertisement in the BREEDERS' MARKET PLACE (Live Stock section) of NEW ENGLAND HOMESTEAD will bring you big returns at a minimum expense.

Just as the best breeders exhibit their wares at the Eastern States Exposition so also do they advertise their stock for sale in the "Old Reliable's" BREEDERS' MARKET PLACE."

75,000 Circulation Weekly

J. G. WATSON, Live Stock Representative
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

P. S.

If you're showing at the Eastern States it will pay you well to reserve space in the Homestead's Exposition Number of September 18th. It reaches New England breeders before the opening of the show. Write Jimmie for rates and information.

TEN YEARS OF PROGRESS

MEASURED in terms of consistent growth, achievement and results attained, the Eastern States Exposition in presenting its tenth anniversary program offers exceptional advantages to exhibitor and visitor. Attractions for the tenth annual all-purpose show that takes place from September 19 to 25 inclusive far surpass anything attempted heretofore. Plant facilities have been increased to meet additional demands. The well-developed policy of expansion is being carried forward again this year.

The Eastern States Exposition began its series of agricultural and industrial show successes in 1916 when it brought into the East for the first time the National Dairy Show. Its plant was dedicated with that event. In the following year the first all-purpose exhibition was conducted. In 1918 the Exposition property was utilized by the government for war purposes. In 1919 the plant reverted to the Exposition management and the series of annual exhibitions was resumed. These have been conducted since without interruption. Each has been signalized by healthy, steady and consistent growth in attendance, extension of departments, and agricultural and industrial exhibits.

Ten years ago the Exposition plant consisted of five permanent brick, steel and concrete buildings. Today it has eleven, plus more than a score of other structures devoted to housing exhibits and displays. These include general exhibition buildings for live stock, industrial and agricultural displays, the Massachusetts and Maine state buildings on the new Avenue of States, two other structures devoted in their entirety to work of boy and girl club members and another that portrays the activities of the county in which the Eastern States Exposition is situated. From a physical value of approximately $1,000,000 in 1916, the value of the Exposition plant and equipment has been increased to more than $2,500,000.

In every division and in every department the growth of the Exposition has been reflected in an ever widening circle of interest indicated by attendance and exhibits. In 1917 the total attendance was 138,000. This was increased to 186,000 in 1919. Last year the total attendance was 273,615, drawn from 32 states and four Canadian provinces.

While commensurate growth has taken place in the various departments, at the same time balance and diversity have been maintained. At the 1925 fall show there were 280 industrial exhibitors displaying every class and type of product. In 1917 there were but 79 industrial exhibitors. In 1925 there were 255 live stock exhibitors showing 2303 individual head of stock as against a showing of 957 head in 1917.

Other divisions have kept pace with this remarkable record.

Products of field and orchard have a prominent place in the exhibits. Woman's sphere in the home is recognized, the Exposition maintaining a well equipped home department housed in model cottages. Displays by the several states are comprehensive and present an accurate picture of natural, industrial and agricultural resources. To these can be added scores of specialized exhibits, all calculated to inspire public interest.

One of its most noteworthy efforts has been the promotion of endeavor among boys and girls. From a small group of farm boys and girls in Camp Vail in 1916, junior activities have been expanded until they are now the largest in America. More than 1,000 junior champions drawn from 17 states and Canada attended the Exposition in 1925 as guests of the management, representing 19 distinct departments.

Two years ago an annual poultry show was established. This has its own permanent brick building, and has proved an unqualified success. Other additions to the general program include the students' intercollegiate and junior live stock judging contests, numerous live stock sales, baby beef feeding and management contests, Fitter Families contest, musical festivals, an annual barnyard golf tournament, automobile tourists' camp, cat and dog shows, etc., plus a wide range of distinctly educational displays in which the Federal government and various agricultural colleges have co-operated.

The educational features of such an institution have not been allowed however to overshadow entertainment and amusement of the better sort for which the Eastern States Exposition has always been noted. Chief among the Exposition attractions is the Springfield Horse Show conducted in the monster Coliseum arena. This brings together the leading stables and most famous whips of America. It has been given the approval of society and marks the opening of the fall and winter social season.

Music has been given an important place also. World famous bands and orchestras feature an engagement at Springfield as something greatly to be desired. Speed programs have proved attractive. Light harness and running races comprise the afternoon grandstand program for four days, while on two days world record automobile racing is featured. To this the management has added auto polo, a host of headline vaudeville and circus acts and numerous events for the daily outdoor evening program in front of the grandstand, which includes music and vaudeville, a mammoth fireworks spectacle and a daily pyrotechnical display, and many other features.

In presenting its tenth anniversary program, the Exposition management has made every effort to exceed those of previous years. The 1926 exhibition is an important milestone in its record of progress. Again, as heretofore, the Eastern States Exposition offers more to visitor and exhibitor than any similar institution in America.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Transportation

Passenger Service—Street car service is maintained from Springfield direct to the Exposition grounds. Cars will run into a loop at the entrance.

The new $6,000,000.00 bridge recently built across the Connecticut River puts the Exposition grounds within ten minutes of Springfield's business section.

Exhibit Transportation—Freight in carload lots may be billed in care of the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass., and switched direct to the grounds.

A switching charge of $3.00 per car is made by the Boston & Albany Railroad Company on all shipments switched either to or from the unloading platforms at the grounds.

To or from the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. or the B. & M. R. R. when destined to or coming from points on or via the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., or the B. & M. R. R. to or from which thru rates are in effect, charge is 76c. per net or gross ton, as case may be, carload minimum weight as per Official Classification but in no case less than 20,000 lbs.

To and from the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. or the B. & M. R. R., when destined to or coming from points on or via the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. or the B. & M. R. R. to or from which no thru rates are in effect, charge is 38c. per ton, minimum as above. This is an addition to the charge of $3.00 per car to or from the connection of the Eastern States Exposition siding in West Springfield yard and points in the Exposition Grounds.

This additional charge per ton will not be made on shipments arriving in Springfield via the Boston & Albany Railroad.

Note—All freight charges must be prepaid. Owners and exhibitors must furnish persons in charge of stock or other exhibits with enough money to pay switching charges and any unpaid freight charges.

Note—The management strongly advises against switching less than carload lots to the grounds. Exhibitors will avoid delay by having less than carload lots hauled from the Springfield freight offices. The transfer and express companies are prepared to do this hauling efficiently and at reasonable rates.

B. & A. R. R. Freight Tariff No. 9075
B. T. Jones' Tariff No. 360-A and Supplement No. 8
Effective October 25, 1925

RULES GOVERNING THE HANDLING OF EXHIBITS FOR EXPOSITIONS AND FAIRS

Articles (except Automobiles, Aeroplanes, Horses used for races, or bucking contests, or Trained Horses or other animals used for other than exhibition purposes) for exhibition at expositions or fairs held under public auspices (See Note A) will be transported subject to the following rules:

1. When exhibited at one exposition or fair, and then returned to point of origin (See Notes B and D) articles will be carried, as far as relate to lines parties to this tariff, at full tariff rates going and free returning, if returned within 30 days after the close of the exposition or fair at which they are exhibited, and the bill of lading therefor is accompanied by certificate of the Secretary of such exposition that such articles were exhibited and have not changed ownership.

2. When moving over a circuit of expositions or fairs the articles will be way-billed at the regular tariff rate to each point of exhibition, and at the close of each fair, on presentation of a certificate from the Secretary of the fair that such articles were exhibited thereat and that no change of ownership has occurred, the inbound charges will be reduced to one-half of the tariff rates (See Note D), and when reshipped from the last point of exhibition to the original point of shipment via direct routes and the bill of lading is accompanied by similar certificate from the Secretary of the fair or exhibition, one-half of the traff rates will be applied (See Note D).

3. Livestock (chiefly valuable for breeding, racing, show purposes or other special uses) (See Notes C and F), will be handled at less than full tariff rates as provided herein only when carriers' liability is limited to the following valuations:

Each horse or pony (gelding, mare or stallion), burro, donkey, mule, jack or jenny.....	$150.00
Each colt under one year old.....	75.00
Each ox, bull or steer.....	75.00
Each cow	50.00
Each calf, 6 months old or under	20.00
Each hog	15.00
Each sheep	5.00
Each goat	5.00

4. Traps (not vehicles) and personal effects, including buckets, curry combs, brushes, halters, feed boxes, blankets, and wearing apparel of attendants, with carload shipments of Live Stock (except horses used for races or bucking contests) will be carried without additional charges as follows:

Not exceeding 500 lbs. with each carload. Subject to value declared in writing by the shipper or agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property not to exceeding ten (10) cents per pound subject to Note one.

Note 1—The value declared in writing by the shipper, or agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property, as the case may be, must be entered on Shipping Order and Bill of Lading as follows:

“I hereby declare the value of each article of traps and personal effects herein described as ten cents per pound.”

Or

Shipper's Signature.

“The value of each article of traps and personal effects herein described is hereby agreed upon as ten cents per pound.”

Shipper's signature.

If consignor declines to declare value or agree to release value in writing as provided above, the shipment of traps and personal effects will not be handled free, but will be charged for at the published tariff rates.

With carload shipments of Live Stock (except horses used for Races or Bucking Contests), feed and bedding loaded in the same car with Live Stock will be handled free.

If amount of feed remaining in car after same reaches destination exceeds 500 pounds, such excess over 500 pounds will be charged at the regular less carload rate.

Note A—These rules will not apply on articles moving to or from expositions held by manufacturers, dealers or associations for commercial or trade purposes.

Note B—Return movement must be via the same Railroad as the Initial movement.

Note C—For the purposes of applying these rules, all shipments of livestock exhibited at expositions or fairs, will be considered “chiefly valuable for breeding, racing, show purposes or other special uses,” but these rules will not apply on Horses used for races, or bucking contests, or trained Horses or other animals used for other than exhibition purposes.

Note D. Switching Charges—On shipments returned free, as provided in Rule 1, or adjusted to one-half tariff rates, as provided in Rule 2, switching charges of connecting railroads must be paid by the owner of property, and will not be borne by the carrier.

Note E—Attendants accompanying shipments of exhibits (if permitted under lawfully published tariffs) will be required to pay full fare at rates published in passenger tariffs lawfully on file with the Interstate Commerce Commission and State Commissions.

Note F—Rules published herein will also apply on livestock (See Note C) originating at points in Canada exhibited at points in the United States and returned to original point of shipment in Canada.

Express.

The American Railway Express Company will make deliveries to the grounds. The express company will have offices on the grounds for handling shipments of exhibits to the Exposition. Goods should be billed in care of the Eastern States Exposition Grounds and prepaid to insure prompt delivery. Shipments should be made as early as possible.

Telegraph.

The Western Union Telegraph Company will maintain a branch office in the Coliseum during the entire period of the Exposition.

Telephone.

A telephone system will be maintained on the grounds by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, with direct connection for local or long distance service.

Administration Offices.

The administration offices will be located in the Coliseum from Sept. 11 to Sept. 28. At other periods of the year, 292 Worthington St., Springfield, Mass.

Bureau of Information.

A bureau of information will be maintained by the Springfield Chamber of Commerce at the main entrance to the Coliseum for the purpose of serving exhibitors and visitors in every way possible.

Press Bureau.

A press bureau for newspapermen will be located in the Coliseum. Copies of awards in the most important departments will be furnished to the press, as well as special announcements, official decisions, and other news items of similar value. Reporters and editors are cordially invited to make this office their headquarters while at the Exposition.

Program.

A complete daily program cannot be published in this booklet, owing to the early date of going to press, but same will be announced in the newspapers, the Official Program, and on large placards posted on the grounds.

General Notice.

The Exposition management will welcome any report of mistreatment or extortion by any employee of the Exposition or concessionaire. Immediate information is desired of the sale of any liquor on the grounds. Complaints should be made immediately, so that the matter can be attended to at once.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rule 1—Mandate, Interpretation, Amendments and Violations.

Section 1. All rules and regulations published in this book are made a part of the conditions under which all entries are accepted or exhibit space or concession contracts are granted.

Section 2. The Eastern States Exposition management reserves to its Executive Committee and General Manager the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the Exposition.

Section 3. The management reserves the right to amend or add to these rules and regulations as in its judgment may be deemed advisable.

Section 4. Any person who violates any of the following general rules and regulations or any special rule or rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the Executive Committee may order.

Rule 2—General Entry Requirements.

Section 1. Exhibits that have been erroneously entered may, in the discretion of the General Manager, be transferred to their proper classes previous to the judging. If such classes have been judged they shall not be re-judged.

Section 2. Firms or co-partnerships entering for competition must be in existence thirty days prior to the date of closing entries, and in all cases must be bona fide, and affidavits of the age of firms may be required by the management.

Rule 3—Exhibits and Exhibitors.

Section 1. Exhibitors are prohibited from covering their stock between the hours of 9 A. M. and 6 P. M. each day of the Exposition. In departments other than live stock, exhibits must be uncovered and ready for inspection of visitors between the hours of 9 A. M. and 10 P. M. each day of the Exposition except Sunday 1 P. M. to 9 P. M.

Section 2. Any false representation, interference or ungentlemanly conduct on the part of an exhibitor will be dealt with by the superintendent of the department containing the exhibit, or the General Manager, and there shall be no appeal from the latter's decision.

Section 3. Under no circumstances will any person or firm be allowed to place any advertising matter upon any building, fence, post, tree, etc., except such as may be allowed by a superintendent, in or on an exhibition space, rented as such, or an enclosure for the exhibition of live stock, nor will they be permitted to distribute advertising matter outside of the space assigned them. The distribution of handbills, dodgers, flyers, cards, etc., any place upon the grounds is absolutely prohibited. Any violation of this rule will be severely dealt with by the management. Exhibitors will not be permitted to call attention to their exhibits in a noisy or otherwise objectionable manner.

Section 4. Competition in the various departments is open to exhibits as specified under the General Rules and Regulations and the Special Rules given under each department.

Section 5. All live stock exhibits must be on the grounds and in their proper places not later than eight o'clock A. M. Monday, September 20. All other exhibits, unless otherwise provided in the special rules, must be in their proper places not later than nine o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 18.

Live stock may be placed in the exhibition buildings any time on and after Monday, September 13. Other buildings will be open and superintendents or assistants on the grounds ready to receive exhibits on and after Monday, September 13.

Section 6. All exhibits, unless otherwise provided, must remain in place until 10 o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 25.

Section 7. Gate-keepers and policemen are under instructions not to permit any exhibit to leave the grounds unless accompanied by a written release signed by the General Manager or Assistant General Manager.

Section 8. The Exposition management will in no case assume or pay the transportation charges on articles sent for exhibit.

Section 9. The Exposition management will take every precaution to insure the safety of stock or articles entered and shown after their arrival and placement, but under no circumstances will it be responsible for any loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or article on exhibition, and the exhibitor shall indemnify the Exposition and management thereof against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.

Rule 4—Fees.

Section 1. The charge for exhibit space, for exhibits not entered for premiums, either in buildings or for outside space on the grounds, will be furnished upon application to Charles A. Nash, General Manager.

Section 2. All applications for power, current or for additional lighting must be made to the General Manager, in writing. A permit will be issued in triplicate, one copy of which will be delivered to the official electricians, one copy to the exhibitor, and one copy held for office record. All payments for current must be made at time permit is issued.

Motors.

Section 3. Current for motors will be 110 or 220 volt A. C., 60 cycle, single phase. All motors to be furnished by exhibitor.

Section 4. A responsible Electrical Company will have competent electricians on the grounds and will handle all connections at moderate rates. Payment for connections must be made as soon as work of same is completed.

Section 5. The charge for electric current for power will be as follows:—

$\frac{1}{8}$ H. P. Motor or less	\$1.00
$\frac{1}{4}$ H. P. Motor	1.50
$\frac{1}{2}$ H. P. Motor	2.00
$\frac{3}{4}$ H. P. Motor	2.50
1 H. P. Motor	3.00
2 H. P. Motor	3.50
3 H. P. Motor	4.00
5 H. P. Motor	5.00

These rates quoted for use of current during seven days of the Exposition based on not over ten hours service daily. On all motors of one H. P. or over, even horse power will be the unit for fixing charge up to and including motors of five H. P. On motors over five H. P. a special rate will be fixed based on the hours operated at full load, minimum charge to be $15.00.

Additional Lighting.

Section 6. On account of the many different items which enter into some light connections and not into others we find it impracticable to quote a flat rate as it would work to the exhibitor's disadvantage. Light connections will be made by the official electricians who will be able to furnish bulbs, wire, and all materials at a guaranteed price of cost plus 15%.

Section 7. The charge for light current based on seven days' service will be as follows, bulbs to be furnished by exhibitor:—

Section 2. Special prizes will not be accepted for classes which do not conform to the regular classification of the department in which they belong, unless for urgent reasons satisfactory to the General Manager.

Specials must carry money prizes or articles of intrinsic value. Cups, medals or other articles offered as specials must be in the hands of the General Manager on the opening day of the Exposition or the awards will not be made.

Where specials are offered and included in special lots or classes they will be paid direct by those offering them.

Section 3. Cash premiums awarded by the Exposition in the live stock department except as otherwise noted will be paid by bank check, on the last day of the Exposition, at the General Manager's office on the grounds, provided the accounting department shall have received from the judges a duly certified transcript of the awards as made by them; if such transcript is delayed, checks will be mailed as soon as possible. Premiums in all other departments will be paid as soon after the close of the Exposition as the accounting department can do so.

Section 4. Note—The judges are requested to read carefully the General Rules and all Special Rules under the head of the department or class in which they are to serve; and especially to note and mark those rules bearing on the classes to be adjudicated by them. Ignorance of the rules is inexcusable in a judge.

Section 5. Judges must not award a prize to an unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given to any animal or article that is not deserving. This rule must be strictly adhered to whether there be competition or not.

Section 6. Judges shall report to the General Manager any exhibitor or exhibitors who in any way, whether in person or by agent or servants, interfere with them during the judging, or show any disrespect to them; whereupon the General Manager may, in his discretion, demand a proper apology from such exhibitor, or exclude him from further competition, and the Exposition may withhold any or all premiums that have been awarded.

Section 7. Judges shall place a reserve award in each lot; should an animal or article awarded a prize be disqualified, the animals or articles awarded the next lower prizes shall graduate into the next higher positions, if in the opinion of the judges they are worthy of such prizes.

Section 8. If there be any question as to the regularity of an entry, or the right of any animal or article to compete in any lot, the judge or judges shall report the same to the superintendent in charge for adjustment.

Section 9. A faithful observance of all rules governing an exhibit will be required, and when a doubt as to the meaning or application of a rule arises, the superintendent in charge shall construe it. This construction, when required either by the judge or exhibitor, must be put into writing and returned with the award books.

Section 10. The decision of the official veterinarian and judge as to unsoundness shall be final.

Section 11. The decision of the judges shall be final in all cases, except where mistake, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion, not discovered at the time of the award, is apparent. In such case the General Manager may make decision, or, with his approval, the case may be appealed to the Executive Committee, from whose decision there can be no appeal.

Rule 6—Protests and Appeals.

Section 1. All protests must be in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $25.00, which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint, or appeal, and must be delivered to the General Manager within twelve hours after the occasion for such protest or appeal.

Section 2. No protest or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent or have overlooked an animal or article will be entertained.

Rule 7—Exhibit Space.

Section 1. Space assigned and not occupied by 8 o'clock A. M. on the opening day of the Exposition, will be declared forfeited, as well as all fees paid therefor.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation owning buildings, tents on exhibition or other material, on the Exposition grounds without lease, or whose lease has expired, who shall fail to remove same upon order of the General Manager, shall forfeit claim thereto; and the management may take charge of and remove the same, charging the expense to the owner thereof; and after notice, may sell the same and apply the proceeds to the expenses incurred.

Note—See Rule 4, Section 1.

Rule 8—Forage.

Section 1. A depot for the sale of hay, straw and grain will be maintained by the management where these articles will be sold at cost, plus the expense of handling and delivery. Feed will only be sold for cash. Owners of stock are expected to provide their help with necessary funds with which to purchase feed.

Section 2. No delivery of feed except green forage within the grounds will be permitted after the opening of the Exposition. Exhibitors will be permitted to bring into the grounds only a limited amount of feed, hay or straw, and the management reserves the right to refuse admission of such if in their judgment there is an excessive amount. The space in the barns is for exhibition purposes and not for storage of feed, which can be purchased at any time at the forage barn at reasonable prices.

Rule 9—Miscellaneous.

Section 1. Soliciting subscriptions for any newspaper or periodical will be permitted only upon the written request of publisher or manager to the General Manager ten days prior to the opening day of the Exposition; which request must contain the name of the publisher or manager, privilege desired, and names of solicitors. (No solicitor will be permitted to work who has not been continuously in the employ of the publication for a period of twenty days prior to the Exposition.)

Section 2. Solicitors must confine their operations within the spaces assigned.

Section 3. The use of any articles of merchandise, animal or article, or tickets for drawing, either for sale, or as a gift or inducement, or to influence subscriptions is positively prohibited and the use of same will be declared a misdemeanor and punished according to law.

Advertising Matter.

Section 4. No person will be permitted to distribute advertising matter upon the grounds except from their place of business or exhibit. The tacking or posting of any advertisements, bills, cards, etc., other than within the space occupied by exhibitor is strictly prohibited.

The distribution of hand-bills, flyers, heralds, etc., will not, under any circumstances, be permitted.

Sale of Stocks and Securities.

Section 5. No person, firm or corporation shall sell, solicit sales of, offer for sale or otherwise dispose of stock or securities of any corporation, concern or organization of any name or character, on the Exposition grounds.

Rules and Regulations of the Board of Appeals of the International Associations of Fairs and Expositions.

Section 6. The rules and regulations of the Board of Appeals, adopted by the International Association of Fairs and Expositions, of which the Eastern States Exposition is a member, will be in full force and effect where applicable.

Note—The Board of Appeals has for its object the regulation and control of exhibitors, concessionaires, showmen, judges and employes while connected with the Fairs held by every member of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions, the prevention, detection and punishment of frauds connected therewith, the prevention of discourtesy to the officers of the Fairs and Expositions, members of the Association, and of such judges and officials as may be serving the members of said Association, and for the general protection of the membership of same.

CATTLE DEPARTMENT

F. L. Bentley, State College, Pa., Asst. Supt.

Amount Offered in this Department, $28,860.00

SPECIAL RULES.

1. Entries close Wednesday, August 25, 1926.
2. Entries sent by mail bearing postmark of entry closing date will be accepted if received within a reasonable time thereafter.
3. The entry fee must accompany entries when filed with the General Manager or entries will not be accepted.
4. All applications for entries must be made on printed forms and in accordance with printed instructions thereon, giving class, lot number, animal's name, age, record number, name and address of breeder, name of sire and dam and their record number, together with all other necessary information. Certificates of registry must be shown when requested by the superintendent, except certificates and registry numbers will not be required for junior calves.
5. No animals can be entered or shown as pure-bred unless they have been recorded in the recognized books of record for their respective breeds except in the case of young stock as otherwise provided for in the special rules.
6. Do not make entries for championships. Only first prize winners in their respective lots shall be eligible to compete for championship.
7. Animals composing a herd or group need not be named in application for entry, but said herd or group must consist of animals entered in the individual lots; exhibitor must indicate the lot numbers for which he desires to make entry in the herd or group prizes.
8. All cattle must be owned by the individuals or firms exhibiting same, except as otherwise indicated. In making entry, name of sire or dam must be given.
9. Firms or co-partnerships entering animals for competition must be in existence thirty days prior to the date of closing entries and in all cases must be bona fide, and affidavits of the age of firms may be required by the management. Firms or co-partnerships entered into for show purposes will not be recognized, but cattle bred by a member of the firm or company shall be considered as bred by the company. Should a temporary sale or transfer of a show animal ever be discovered, the exhibitor and proper owner may be barred from all future shows.
10. An animal owned in partnership, which partnership has been in existence thirty days prior to the date of closing entries, may be shown in the name of a part owner, but the facts of the partnership must be stated at time of entry, and the animal must appear in the same part owner's name through all classes wherein entered.

11. Any exhibitor entering an animal in any other than the name of the bona fide owner or owners, except as in Rule 10, or showing an animal in a lot or class for which it is not eligible, may, at the discretion of the management, be barred from further showing, and any or all premiums previously awarded may be forfeited.

12. In breeding classes, all female animals forty-two months of age or over must have produced a calf within the past eighteen months to be eligible to show. Any bull over thirty-six months old that has not had dropped to his service a living calf during the twelve-months preceding the opening day of the Exposition shall be deemed barren and as such shall be excluded from competition.

13. Exhibitors must have their stock on the grounds not later than 8 o'clock A. M., Monday, September 20, 1926.

14. Exhibition cattle will be released after 6 o'clock P. M. Saturday, September 25.

15. Exhibitors must keep their cattle uncovered between the hours of 9 A. M. and 6 P. M.

16. No animal will be passed upon by the judges or awarded a prize whose attendant does not carry and show proper catalog number for the lot exhibiting.

HEALTH REGULATIONS.

17. No animal having hereditary unsoundness will be allowed to compete.

18. All entries of cattle, whether for exhibition or educational purposes, shall be either from a tuberculosis-free accredited herd, or shall have passed a satisfactory tuberculin test and found to be free from tuberculosis. Said test must have been made within ninety days immediately prior to the opening of the show, and by a veterinarian authorized by his State Live Stock official and by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry to apply said test. Exhibitor must produce certificates, which must describe the individual recorded therein, including registration numbers, etc.

19. The General Manager will appoint a chief veterinarian and such assistant veterinarians as may be necessary. These officials shall make inspection of the sanitary conditions of herds on exhibition, and of the grounds, stables and stalls where they are kept, and shall supervise such conditions during the exposition. In case of sickness of any animal it shall be removed, when so ordered by the General Manager, to a separate enclosure where the exhibitor may give treatment to the animal, or employ a veterinarian appointed for that purpose, for whose services and other necessary expenses a reasonable charge may be made. The right is reserved to the general manager to peremptorily order the removal from the grounds of any animal suspected of contagious, infectious or communicable disease.

20. No cattle shall be brought to the exposition grounds from any area in which foot-and-mouth disease prevails, or from areas contiguous thereto, until such areas have been declared free from disease by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Live Stock Officials having supervision of such areas. No animals suspected of contagious disease shall be brought on the exposition grounds.

Note—For all cattle shipped into Massachusetts for exhibition a permit must be obtained from the Director of Animal Industry, Room 124, State House, Boston, Mass.

21. Exhibitors shall show their cattle at such time and places and in such a manner as may be directed and shall furnish such information concerning their stock as may be required by the superintendent, and, in case of refusal to obey this rule, any or all premiums may be forfeited and the exhibitor barred from showing.

22. The management reserves to itself the right of declining to receive any entry and to return any entrance fee before the opening day of the Exposition without being liable for compensation.

23. In case of cattle being entered and not exhibited, the entrance fees will be forfeited.

24. All cows or heifers in milk in the Dairy breeds must be thoroughly milked out in the presence of the superintendent or his assistant at 6 o'clock the evening previous to the day of their exhibition.

25. The management assumes no responsibility in case of loss or damage to stock or other exhibits from any cause; and upon this condition only are entires received.

26. Read carefully the General Rules in the front of this book which apply to all departments.

CLASS 1 HOLSTEIN

To be judged Thursday, September 23d.
Judge—Axel Hansen, Savage, Minn.

Division A

Of the amount of premiums in Division A of this class, $1500.00 is offered by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, headquarters, Brattleboro, Vt., and will be paid direct from their office, pro-rata.

All animals showing for these prizes must be registered in the Holstein-Friesian Association of America and stand on their records in the name of the exhibitor. A transfer of ownership for the purpose of exhibiting will debar an animal and operate against the payment of prizes offered by the Association.

Animals recorded in the Holstein-Friesian Registry Inc. at Harrisburg, Pa., will not be recognized for specials offered by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, and judges are instructed not to place such animals in competition for these specials.

Judges shall place no award except where animals merit such award.

The superintendent of cattle shall examine the certificates of registry and transfer before prizes are awarded that the judge may know that exhibitors have complied with these requirements.

An unregistered animal, even though eligible to registration, or a registered animal not properly transferred, cannot compete.

No attendant or other person leading animals will be allowed to enter arena unless properly uniformed.

The management will announce the order of judging for the various divisions of this class.

Base dates for computing ages in senior lots is August 1, and in junior lots, February 1.

Entry fee $4.00 for each individual entry. No entry fee on herds and groups. Entries not to be made for championship.

MILK SHORTHORNS BEEF

Milking Shorthorns to-day are better cows than the Durhams of yesterday.

New England gates are opening again to these profitable cattle. They give an abundance of 4% milk on home grown feed and the best of beef when killed.

World's record for butter fat was made by a Shorthorn, 1614 pounds.

CLASS 6 MILKING SHORTHORN

To be judged Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 20th and 21st.

Judge—John O. Rowe, Davis, Calif.

The American Shorthorn Breeders' Association, 13 Dexter Park Ave., Chicago, Ill., offers two-sevenths of the prizes in this class. Every animal exhibited in the Milking Shorthorn Division must have placed above it a descriptive card giving the name, registry number, color, age, sire and dam, besides the name and address of the exhibitors. This rule is imperative.

All animals (except cows three years old or over) to be out of Record of Merit dams, or sired by bulls out of Record of Merit dams, or by bulls having two or more daughters in the Record of Merit, or out of dams having two or more daughters in the Record of Merit, or to be shown by recognized Milking Shorthorn breeders.

For the classes of cows, five years old or over and three years old and under five, it is required at all shows where premium money is offered by this Association on Milking Shorthorns that the cows be milked dry the evening before the showing, milking permitted to begin at six o'clock and that the cows be milked out in the ring and their milk weighed under the supervision of the judge, and those not making the prescribed weights of milk be omitted from awards.

No attendant or other person leading animals will be allowed to enter arena unless properly uniformed.

Entry fee $4.00 for each individual entry. No entry fee on herds or groups. Entries not to be made for championships.

CLASS 11 CARLOAD LOTS FAT CATTLE AND FEEDERS

To be judged Monday, Sept. 20th.

Supervisor—Samuel Russell, Jr.

Judge—W. H. Pew, Freedom Station, Ohio.

The Eastern States Exposition is putting forth every effort to encourage live stock production throughout the East. In the past, the classes for exhibition live stock have been confined to breeding animals and classes for individual market animals. To further encourage beef production on a commercial scale and show the people of the East what can be accomplished by the proper breeding and feeding of cattle, liberal prizes are offered this year for carload lots of fat cattle and feeders. The carload lot exhibit is quite a feature at many of the leading fairs throughout the country and it is the aim of the Eastern States Exposition to make this one of the main attractions in connection with an outstanding live stock exhibit. The feeder class is put in this year as a result of the recent organization of the Eastern Beef Producers Association with the idea of making at least a limited number of high class feeders available. It is planned that feeders' carlots will be sold on the grounds during Exposition week.

Rules and Regulations for Carload Division

1. Each carload must consist of 15 animals.
2. Steers or heifers that have not been fed for market shall be known and entered as Feeders in lot 474 or 475. Those entered in lot 475 must have been dropped in 1926.
3. Cattle entered in lot 476 or lot 477 are cattle which have been grain fed and are ready for market.
4. Cattle entered in any of the classes must be of uniform age and size but an entry may consist of a combination of two or more beef breeds, namely, Angus, Hereford or Shorthorn.
5. Cattle exhibited in carload lots cannot be exhibited in the individual steer lots.
6. The cattle for one lot must be owned by not more than three individuals or firms. If owned by more than one individual or firm, such ownership must be designated when the entry is made but the entry must be made in the name of one of the owners.
7. All entries in this division close September 1, 1926.
8. No entry fee.

Class 12 Boys' and Girls'

Baby Beef Feeding and Management Contest

Judge—Peter McKenzie, State College, Penn.

To be judged Monday, Sept. 20th.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The seventh annual boys' and girls' baby beef exhibition, encampment, feeding and management contest will be held at the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Massachusetts, September 19-25, 1926.

From 1920 when sixteen baby beeves were shown and sold at the Eastern States Exposition there has been a steady increase in the quality of animals shown. In 1921 fifty-eight animals were shown and sold, eighty-two in 1922, fifty-five in 1923, ninety-four in 1924 and sixty-one in 1925.

It is the aim of this contest to encourage the growing of native stock. There is an increasing demand from local buyers for local stock. It is interesting to note that there were thirty-one buyers from twelve different communities at the baby beef auction in 1925. The average sale price was 15½ cents not including the grand champion, and the average weight of animals sold was 984½ pounds.

This junior activity is becoming an important factor in the larger program for beef growing in New England, especially in the soil fertility program in connection with the tobacco farms of the Connecticut Valley. Besides its economic value it has received strong endorsement from educators who see the lessons of thrift and industry inculcated in the minds of young people thru their handling of livestock.

Class 13 Boys' and Girls' Dairy Calf Club Exhibits

INCLUDING MASSACHUSETTS POULTRY CLUB EXHIBIT

Superintendent, Robert P. Trask

Dairy calves will be judged Monday afternoon, Sept. 20th, at 2:00 P.M.

ANNOUNCEMENT

A general boys and girls 4-H dairy club exhibition and encampment will be held for the first time in connection with the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass., September 19 to 25, 1926. Heretofore thru the generosity of the Massachusetts Society for Promoting Agriculture and the Eastern States Exposition cooperating, a camp for Massachusetts 4-H dairy club members only has been held at the Eastern States Exposition.

Because of the increasing interest in dairy club work the Eastern States Exposition has provided additional funds and facilities to include the other Northeastern States in this activity. The Massachusetts Society for Promoting Agriculture has increased its appropriation to provide for special prizes for Massachusetts dairy club members and also to maintain a poultry club show.

The number of dairy animals for exhibition and members eligible to the encampment is limited to fifty. Animals for exhibition and members for the camp will be based on the proportion of dairy club members to the total number of club members in each state.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Dairy Division

1. All exhibitors who are eligible to the camp will be required to attend the Exposition from September 18 to 25, prepare their animals and lead them unaided into the show ring, under penalty of forfeiting all prizes won. If an exhibitor has more than one animal in a class, he may choose only club members to assist him.

2. Entries for the dairy exhibit will close July 1st. They must be accepted by a County Extension Agent and approved by state club leader of the State Agricultural College.

3. All animals must come from accredited herds or must have passed a tubercular test within 90 days prior to the opening of the show by an authorized veterinarian. This test must be completed before animals are shipped to the Exposition.

4. Exhibits should arrive on Exposition grounds September 18 and must remain with the junior dairy exhibit throughout the show. Owners must pay shipping expenses both ways. No entry fees will be charged and stock will be fed at the expense of the management.

5. As far as possible, exhibitors will be expected to care for their animals while on the grounds. Arrangements can be made with the superintendent for feeding if necessary, but the Exposition management assumes no responsibility for injury or loss.

6. First prize money will not be paid unless there are three or more entries in a class. If there are two entries in a class, second money will be given. If only one entry, third money will be given. In every instance, ribbons will be awarded according to the placings of the judge.

7. The age of the calf should be reckoned from August 1, 1926.

8. The show is limited to registered purebred dairy animals. Exhibitors must show papers proving ownership and registration. No gift animal will be accepted. All animals must be owned by members of 4-H dairy clubs.

9. Animals in this department may be exhibited in the open classes. Entry blanks may be obtained from C. A. Nash, General Manager, Eastern States Exposition, Springfield.

Massachusetts Poultry Division

1. All exhibitors in this department must have been former poultry club members not over 21 years of age, or members of the Massachusetts poultry clubs during 1926, and all exhibits must have been owned by the exhibitors on or before August 1, 1926.

2. There will be separate classes for fancy and utility birds; no bird can be entered in both classes.

3. All birds in the exhibition classes shall be judged strictly according to the 1923 "Amercian Standard of Perfection." All birds in the utility classes shall be judged according to the "Cornell Method of Judging Fowl for Egg Production."

4. There will be no class for single utility cockerels, pullets or cock birds. However, all pens will be judged on the basis of 50 points for standard qualifications and 50 points for utility.

5. First prize money will not be paid unless there are three or more entries in a class. If there are two entries in a class, second money will be given. If only one entry, third money will be given. In every instance, ribbons will be awarded according to the placings of the judge.

6. All entries for the poultry exhibit must be sent to E. H. Nodine, Junior Extension Department, M. A. C., Amherst, Massachusetts, on or before Wednesday, September 8th, 1926.

7. All birds must be leg banded and a leg band number put on the shipping tag.

DAIRY JUDGING CONTEST

On Monday, September 20th, at a time to be definitely announced, a dairy judging contest limited to regularly enrolled members of dairy clubs will be conducted.

Judging will be done as individuals. Entries must be made by the State Club Leader, addressed to Robert P. Trask, Lexington, Mass., not later than September 5, 1926.

The junior dairy judging contest will be held in conjunction with the Intercollegiate Judging Contest and account of these two contests being held at the same time the contestants in the junior dairy judging will be limited to 75 members.

A solid gold watch offered by the Eastern States Exposition will be awarded to the contestant standing highest in the contest. Medals will be awarded to second, third, and fourth high-rating contestants.

SPECIAL PRIZES AND TRIPS

(For Massachusetts Club Members)

For the past three years Massachusetts boys' and girls' dairy and poultry clubs have had a camp and exhibited their stock at the Eastern States Exposition, largely through the liberality of the Massachusetts Society for Promoting Agriculture which last year appropriated $2,500.00 for this purpose.

This year the Exposition management will conduct a dairy camp and show which will be open to boys and girls from all of the eastern states, including Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Society for Promoting Agriculture wishes to continue its support of dairy and poultry club work at the Exposition and this year has increased its appropriation to $2,800.00. In order to avoid duplication, the money appropriated for dairy work will be spent in conjunction with the Exposition. It will be possible for fifty boys and girls from the old Bay State to attend the dairy camp and exhibit their animals in the show ring. In addition to prizes offered by the Exposition in the dairy division, the Massachusetts Society will award special prizes to club members from Massachusetts, so that practically every member of the camp can be certain of winning something. Prizes will be awarded to supplement those offered by the Exposition. The Society's money will be awarded as follows: First, $20.00; second, $18.00; third, $15.00; fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth, all $10.00. These will be awarded in each of the classifications in the premium list. Special prizes will also be given for the best Massachusetts herd of four breeds competing: First, $40.00; second, $30.00; third, $25.00; fourth, $15.00.

Dairy club members will lead their animals into the Coliseum arena on Monday, September 20, and receive their cash prizes and ribbons directly from the hands of the trustees of the Massachusetts Society for Promoting Agriculture.

The poultry show will be conducted as in previous years, with generous cash prizes offered in all the principal classes. Wednesday, September 22, will be Poultry Day. More than 150 club members from every part of the State will be the guests of the Exposition management and will receive their traveling expenses and prizes from the trustees of the Massachusetts Society for promoting Agriculture.

Every poultry and dairy club member in Massachusetts is eligible to compete for the privilege of participating in these big events this year.

For further information communicate at once with the Junior Extension Department of the Massachusetts Agricultural College or any County Club Agent.

DAIRY CLUB CAMP

A camp for the owners of dairy animals shown at the Eastern States Exposition will be established and maintained during the week of the Exposition, September 19-25, 1926.

Rules and Regulations

In order to become a member of the Eastern States Dairy Club Camp, the following qualifications, rules and regulations must be complied with.

1. Membership in the Eastern States Dairy Club Camp is limited to 50 boys and girls who own and have at the Exposition dairy animals eligible to enter and show under the rules. (Massachusetts club members note special prize trips).

2. Application for membership in the Camp must be filed with Robert P. Trask, Supt. Dairy Club Division, Lexington, Mass., on or before July 1, 1926.

3. The Camp will be in operation from Saturday, September 18th, to Saturday night, September 25th.

4. Lodging and subsistence in Camp will be furnished free of charge to all members eligible under these rules.

5. The Camp will be open ready to receive members at one o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 18th.

6. First meal served will be supper, Saturday evening, September 18th, and last meal breakfast, Saturday morning, September 25th.

7. Members accepted and enrolled in Camp must stay throughout the entire week.

8. Strict camp discipline will be in force at all times which must be observed by all members.

9. Each Camp member as designated must answer daily to roll call at the Dairy Club Tent at 7:00 and 11:30 A. M. and at 5:00 P. M. each day to clean barn or do any necessary work.

8. All animals must be owned by the person or persons exhibiting them at the time of making entries but progeny of animals may be shown simply as proof of their breeding qualities without such ownership. In making entry the name of the sire or dam must be given.
9. Any exhibitor entering an animal in any other than the name of the bona fide owner or owners, or attempting to show an animal in a lot or class for which it is not eligible, may be barred from further showing and any or all premiums already awarded may, at the discretion of the management, be forfeited or withheld.
10. All swine must be on the grounds not later than 8 o'clock A. M., September 20.
11. Swine must remain in pens until 6 o'clock P. M. Saturday, September 25.
12. No animals having hereditary unsoundness will be allowed to compete for premiums, and all animals over two years old must give evidence that they have produced young inside of twelve months.
13. When there are fewer animals shown in lots than the number of premiums offered, the judges may, in their discretion, award a prize or prizes of such grade as the animal or animals deserve.

14. Where there is but a single exhibitor in a lot of any class the judge may award but one premium; where but two exhibitors and but two animals are shown, two premiums may be awarded; but if there be two exhibitors and three or more animals shown, three premiums may be awarded; where three or more exhibitors all premiums may be awarded.

15. Boars of one year or over must have tusks removed.

16. In champion lots, swine farrowed before September 1, 1925, will be classed as "senior"; swine farrowed on or after September 1, 1925, as "junior."

17. No swine will be permitted to be brought on the exposition grounds from any area in which the foot and mouth disease has prevailed, or from areas contiguous thereto, until a reasonable length of time has elapsed since such territory has been declared clean and free by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Live Stock Sanitary Board officials.

18. Aged Herd. To consist of one boar and three sows over one year old.

Breeders' Aged Herd. To consist of one boar and three sows over one year old, bred by exhibitor.

Young herd. To consist of one boar and three sows under one year old.

Breeders' Young Herd. To consist of one boar and three sows under one year old, bred by exhibitor.

Get of Boar. To consist of four swine, any age, get of same boar.

Produce of Sow. To consist of four swine, any age, produce of same sow.

19. Read carefully the general rules in the front of this book, which apply to all departments.

Note—For all swine shipped into Massachusetts for exhibition a permit must be obtained from the Director of Animal Industry, Room 124, State House, Boston, Mass. All such swine must be accompanied by an affidavit of the owner to the effect that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, they are not affected with hog cholera, and that hog cholera has not existed upon the premises from which they have been removed for a period of not less than three months immediately prior to date of shipment; also that swine have not been subjected to the serum and virus treatment within thirty days immediately prior to date of shipment. No animals suspected of contagious disease shall be brought on the Exposition grounds.

Class 20 Boys' and Girls' Pig Clubs

Director, Harry L. Garrigus

Announcement

This class is offered to give opportunity to any boy or girl regularly enrolled in pig club work, under the direction of the state and county club leader, to show their pigs at the Eastern States Exposition. It is needless to say that the Eastern States Exposition is behind club work one hundred per cent and each year as finances and equipment permit enlarging the scope of the Junior divisions of the Exposition.

Rules

1. Entries in this class are open to all boys and girls enrolled in the pig club work in any of the North Atlantic States (the six New England States, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia).

2. Only pigs born on and after February 1, 1926, will be eligible to enter and show.

3. Each boy or girl may show not over two boar and two sow pigs.

4. Four pigs required to show in the litter class and must be of the same litter. Same pigs can be shown in both the litter and individual lots.

5. Pig club members must have all reports required by their leader complete to September 1, 1926.

6. All entries must be made on the regular Eastern States Exposition printed forms, which may be obtained from the General Manager. These forms are to be filled out and filed in the office of Chas. A. Nash, General Manager, on or before Monday, September 1, 1926.

7. The Eastern States Exposition will feed and care for the pigs entered and shown while at the Exposition Grounds, but will not be responsible for injury, sickness or accident of any character while animals are in their possession.

8. Pigs will be accepted by H. L. Garrigus at the Swine Barn, Eastern States Exposition Grounds on either Saturday or Sunday, September 18 or 19, 1926. All pigs must be removed by their owner or agents before noon, Monday, September 26.

9. Awards will be made by the regular judge of the swine department.

SHEEP DEPARTMENT

Harry L. Garrigus, Storrs, Conn., Director

Judge—Peter McKenzie, State College, Penn.

Amount of Prizes offered $4236.00

Special Rules

1. Entries close Wednesday, August 25, 1926.

Entries sent by mail bearing postmark of entry closing date will be accepted if received within a reasonable time thereafter.

2. The entry fee must accompany entries when filed with the General Manager or entries will not be accepted.

3. All entries must be made on printed forms, which may be obtained from the General Manager upon request. Exhibitor in making entries must specify owner's name and address; class and lot number to be entered for; breeder's and association ear tag numbers, except that in case of sheep less than six months old, breeder's ear tag number and name and registry number of sire and dam only will be required. Breeder's name and address must be filled in on the entry blank. All sheep entered, except lambs under six months old, must have been registered in the recognized books of record for their respective breeds. Certificate of registry or proof of pedigree must be furnished the superintendent on demand.

4. The breeder of an animal bought in dam is the owner of the dam at the time of service.

5. Animals to compose a flock or group need not be named when making entries but the exhibitor must indicate the lot numbers in which he desires to make entries in flocks and groups.

6. Sheep must be owned by one individual or previously existing firm at least thirty days prior to the opening day of the exposition.

7. The date of shearing must in all cases be verified and in making awards the judge will take the date of shearing into consideration.

8. All sheep stubble shorn, block shorn, oiled or blacked shall be excluded from competition.

9. All lambs must be dropped within the year shown.

10. In case of sheep being entered and not exhibited the entrance fee will be forfeited.

12. All sheep must remain in pens until 6 o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 25.

13. No animals having any hereditary unsoundness shall be awarded a prize. All ewes over three years old must have produced live lambs and the fact must be certified and evidence furnished if required or ewes will be declared ineligible to compete.

14. Ram two years old or over must have sired lambs within twelve months preceding the show. When demanded by the superintendent affidavit to this effect must be made by the exhibitor or rams will be declared ineligible to compete.

15. When there are fewer animals shown in lots than the number of premiums offered, the judges may, in their discretion, award a prize or prizes of such grade as the animal or animals deserve.

16. Where there is but a single exhibitor in a lot of any class, the judge may award but one premium; where two exhibitors and but two animals are shown, two premiums may be awarded; but if there be two exhibitors and three or more animals shown, three premiums may be awarded; where three or more exhibitors, all premiums may be awarded.

17. The ear tag number of all animals awarded prizes must be recorded in the judges' book.

18. No sheep will be permitted to be brought on the exposition grounds from any area in which the foot and mouth disease has prevailed, or from areas contiguous thereto, until a reasonable length of time has elapsed since such territory has been declared clean and free by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Live Stock Sanitary Board Officials.

19. Get of Sire shall consist of four lambs, any age, get of same sire, American bred.

20. Flock shall consist of one ram, any age; one ewe two years old or over; one ewe one year old and under two; and one ewe lamb.

21. Read carefully the general rules in the front of this book, which apply to all departments.

Note—For all sheep shipped into Massachusetts for exhibition permit must be obtained from the Director of Animal Industry, Room 124, State House, Boston, Mass. No animals suspected of contagious disease shall be brought on the Exposition grounds.

CLASS 33 BOYS' AND GIRLS' SHEEP CLUB

To be judged Friday, Sept. 24th.

In order to stimulate the Sheep Club Movement and sheep raising generally by boys and girls, the Eastern States Exposition offers prizes to the amount of Four Hundred and Sixteen Dollars for this classification.

Officials—Robert J. Cleeland, Director; H. L. Garrigus, Supt.; Otis E. Hall, Asst. Superintendent.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Entries in this class limited to boys and girls regularly enrolled as a member of a Boys' and Girls' Sheep Club, organized and directed by a County Club leader.

All entries must first have the approval of the County Club Leader before being accepted by the Eastern States Exposition for competition in this class.

All entries for this Sheep Raising Contest will close Wednesday, August 25, 1926.

All entries to be made on blanks furnished for that purpose by the Eastern States Exposition; entry form to be filled out in full and mailed on or before Wednesday, August 25, to Charles A. Nash, General Manager, Eastern States Exposition.

All sheep accepted for entry in this class will be fed and cared for while at the Exposition Grounds.

No sheep will be received for care prior to noon on Saturday, Sept. 18.

No sheep will be released to leave the grounds before six o'clock P. M., Saturday, Sept. 25.

All sheep must be removed either by the exhibitor or purchaser before Sunday evening, Sept. 26.

The Exposition Management will take every precaution to insure the safety of the sheep exhibited after their delivery to the Exposition Grounds, but under no circumstances will it be responsible for loss or injury.

No club member shall be awarded more than two prizes in any single lot.

To be judged on Friday morning, September 24, beginning at 9 o'clock.

HORSE DEPARTMENT

Breeding and Commercial

Director in Charge, Robert Scoville, New York City

Superintendent, W. H. Tomhave, State College, Penn.

Note—For Horse Show Classes, write for special Prize List to Charles A. Nash, Gen. Mgr., 292 Worthington St., Springfield, Mass.

RULES

1. Entries close Wednesday, August 25, 1926.
2. Entry Fee must accompany entries.
3. All applications for entries must be made on printed forms and in accordance with printed instruction thereon, giving class, lot number, animal's name, age, record number, name and address of breeder, name of sire and dam and their record numbers together with all other necessary information. Entry forms may be obtained from the General Manager.
4. Date for computing age is January 1.
5. No animal shall be awarded a prize unless removed from the stall and exhibited with catalog number attached in the show ring. Animals not exhibited when called out by the ring steward or superintendent, unless especially excused, will be charged $4.00 per day for use of stalls, or removed from the grounds, as the management may decide. Catalog stall cards will be furnished by the superintendent and must be tacked on the stalls where the animals are kept.
6. A feature of the horse show of especial interest and educational value is furnished by the parades of the various breeds in the Coliseum at the evening shows from 8:00 to 10:00 p. m. Due notice will be given of the time and place of forming these parades. Any exhibitor failing to promptly comply with the call of the ring steward or the superintendent will forfeit all or such portion of the prizes awarded to him as the management of the Exposition may see fit to withhold, and the exhibitor may be barred from further showing during the Exposition.
7. In judging groups of breeding animals, the judge will give due weight to all difference in age.
8. Due consideration will be given to size and development, but breed, type and quality will not be subordinated to size in making awards.
9. The judges will discriminate severely against animals that have hereditary or transmissible defect or unsoundness, such as bog or bone spavin, ring bone, curb (when accompanied by curby hock), cataract, springhalt and roaring. All questions concerning soundness of animals shall be referred to a competent veterinary surgeon.

10. Do not make entries for championships. Only first and second prize winners in their respective lots shall be eligible to compete for championships, and no second prize animals shall be placed above reserve in a championship lot.

11. Exhibitors must have their horses on the grounds not later than 8 o'clock a. m., Monday, September 20, 1926. No animals will be released before 6 o'clock p. m., Saturday, September 25, 1926.

12. For all horses shipped into Massachusetts for exhibition from the states of New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Connecticut a permit must be obtained from the Director of Animal Industry, Room 124, State House, Boston, Mass. No animals suspected of contagious disease shall be brought on the Exposition Grounds.

13. Read the general rules in the front of this book which apply to all departments.

DYNAMOMETER HORSE PULLING CONTEST

Something entirely new in the East in relation to the pulling capacity of draft animals will be offered this year by the Eastern States Exposition in cooperation with the Massachusetts Agricultural College, Massachusetts Department of Agriculture and members of the Massachusetts Agricultural Fairs Association in the first annual Dynamometer Horse Pulling Contest.

The value of draft animals depends upon their ability to pull and capacity to endure sustained effort. The object of the dynamometer test is to determine the sustained maximum pulling capacity of each pair. These tests will also afford valuable scientific data and should stimulate general interest in the breeding and use of good draft horses. They will demonstrate also the value of type, soundness and proper breeding in the selection of horses intended for long and arduous draft work. The tests will also encourage horsemanship in fitting harness and in driving and will serve to demonstrate the maximum pulling capacity of the horse.

All contests at the Eastern States Exposition will be for pairs. Either horses or mules may be entered, they may be either pure bred, cross-bred or grade, and the entries may be either stallions, mares or geldings.

There will be three classes with liberal prizes in each.

Class 1 will be for light pairs of horses (or mules) weighing 2600 pounds or under

Class 2 will be for light pairs of horses (or mules) weighing from 2601 to 3000 pounds inclusive.

Class 3 will be for heavy pairs of horses (or mules) weighing 3001 pounds or over.

Stallions will be eligible in either class but in no instance is any advantage to be allowed on the double tree. The management reserves the right to divide or combine such classes as the best interests of the contest may require. The contests shall take place on such days as may be designated by the management

The prizes in each class will be: First, $60; second, $40; third, $25 and fourth, $15. In addition the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture offers a handsome banner to the team making the best record tractive pull. The entry fee for each pair in each class is $3.

Entry blanks and detailed conditions of the contest may be obtained by addressing Charles A. Nash, General Manager, Eastern States Exposition, 292 Worthington Street, Springfield, Mass., or J. C. Cort, Director, Division of Animal Husbandry, State House, Boston, Mass.

Entries close September 1, 1926.

FOURTH ANNUAL DOG SHOW

One of the most pleasing features of the Eastern States Exposition is the three day bench show conducted by the Exposition management and licensed by the American Kennel Club. This will take place this year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23, 24 and 25, and will include all breeds on the standard list. Rupert Kobza of Boston has been named as Superintendent and Dr. O. M. Deems, president of the Springfield Kennel Club, has consented to serve as chairman of the bench show committee.

In accordance with the plan of 1925 which was found to be most successful it will be a day to day show. All breeds will be judged on the day they are shown, thus obviating the necessity of either dogs or owners remaining at the Exposition more than the single day. Accommodations will be provided for animals whose owners desire to take advantage of the entire three day show.

Benching conditions at the Eastern States Exposition are ideal, both from the standpoint of exhibitor and public. A notable list of judges has been obtained, the proved excellence of the show itself serving as a magnet for those who have accepted the invitation to judge. Another feature of the Eastern States Dog Show that has impressed itself favorably on exhibitors of other years is the opportunity offered for direct sales. No show has a more enviable record in this regard than that of the Exposition.

Prizes are liberal. Cash awards of $2 and $1 are offered by the management in each class, paid immediately after judging. In addition there is a multitude of specials offered by specialty clubs and individuals. Premium lists and entry blanks will be mailed upon request.

EASTERN STATES POULTRY SHOW

Announcement

To our old and new friends we present the premium list and classification schedule of the third Eastern States Exposition Poultry Show to be held in connection with the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass., Sept. 19-25, 1926.

We appreciate sincerely the support given the Eastern States Exposition Poultry Show by the leading breeders of standard bred poultry and announce a continuation of our program of a fair field and no favors, no discriminations against any breed or any breeder, the best judges in America, the fullest possible measure of publicity for exhibits and exhibitors, extraordinary care and attention for the birds, by carefully selected attendants, premiums paid in full during the show and the "BEST QUALITY FALL POULTRY SHOW in America."

Our premium list is generous and fair. Analysis will show, the odd and unusual, the rare, quaint and beautiful, and the newer productions of breeders' creative minds all receive the same invitation through the prize schedule, as the sterling every day varieties which are the back-bone and heart of the poultry business of today.

Classification

The classification will include all varieties of land and water fowl recognized by the American Poultry Association in its Standard of Perfection.

Single bird classes shall be (1) Cock, (2) Hen, (3) Cockerel, (4) Pullet. Old pens shall consist of one cock and four hens. Young pens shall consist of one cockerel and four pullets.

Entry Fees

Entry fee will be $1.00 on single birds and $2.00 on pens. Each exhibitor whose entry fees amount to $4.00 will receive an exhibitor's pass to the Exposition free of charge.

Note—In the above Specials there must be competition, or the honor will be awarded but money withheld. By competition is meant not less than two exhibitors showing displays or not less than two exhibitors showing two cocks and two hens, or not less than two exhibitors showing two cockerels and two pullets.

For additional entry blanks or information write Paul P. Ives, Supt., Guilford, Conn., or Charles A. Nash, General Manager, Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass.

Rules and Regulations

1. Entries close on September sixth, 1925.

2. All birds must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor.

Any exhibitor violating this rule will be debarred from competition, and all prizes won will be forfeited.

3. No specimens will be received for exhibition except those which have been duly entered with the Exposition, and on which the entry fees and express charges have been paid.

4. All entries should be made on blanks furnished by the Exposition, which will be mailed to exhibitors on application. Copy should be retained by the exhibitor. Upon receipt of entries, shipping tags will be sent the exhibitor.

5. It will not be necessary for exhibitors to accompany their birds. They may ship by express, charges prepaid, addressed to the Eastern States Poultry Show, Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass. They will be received, cared for and re-shipped at the close of the show, subject to express charges.

6. Exhibitors should use the cards furnished by the Exposition. The exhibitor's name and address should be placed conspicuously on the shipping coops in addition to the shipping tags, as an additional security for identification.

7. The birds will be judged by the principles set forth in the Standard of Perfection of the American Poultry Association.

8. In order that each exhibitor may receive all possible publicity, and that the show may have the greatest interest to the public, the breed, variety and class and the name and address of the exhibitor will be conspicuously displayed on each coop.

9. No person shall interfere with the judges in any manner while in the performance of their duties.

10. The management will not be responsible for any damage or loss, from whatever cause arising. All specimens are entered at the sole risk of owners, but they will be fed, watered and cared for by experienced attendants, and every effort made to return them in as good condition as when received. Watchmen will be kept on duty day and night.

11. Exhibition coops furnished by the management.

12. During the Exposition no specimens can be removed from the exhibition hall except by consent of the Superintendent.

13. Poultry showing symptoms of disease will be removed from the exhibition and disposed of as the owner directs.

14. Specimens not regularly entered will not be allowed exhibition.

15. No protests will be entertained. The decision of the judges will be final.

16. Exhibits must be in place on or before ten A. M., Sunday, Sept. 19th. This rule is imperative.

17. The Eastern States Exposition management reserves to its Executive Committee and General Manager the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the Exposition. The management reserves the right to amend or add to these rules and regulations as in its judgment may be deemed advisable.
